Full Moon Festival

Full Moon Festival
From The "Danu RP Community" Discord Server

From The "Danu RP Community" Discord Server:

From the north they came, rushing through the Jura, Aras, and the western Wildlands of Inis Gallia. The messengers had been sent out at night by Byllyx, Emissary of Danu, with news for the people of the Ardennes valley. Passing through the Wildlands, the messengers arrived at the Wildling Pass just as the first rays of sunlight passed through the dense forest.

They continued down the road then seperated at the crossroads. One group continued east to Thistletown, Silver Sun Republic, and Wyvern's Reach. The other group turned south, passing by the Beacon Inn on their way to Vanguard, Ravenhall and Sallow's Gate. The messengers joyously proclaiming to every house and settlement along the way, "The Ardennes valley had been chosen to host the Full Moon Festival for the province of Inis Gallia."

Along with the message came a challenge, The full moon was only 11 nights away. That left little time to prepare and get word out about the festival to all the valleys of Inis Gallia. Who would rise to the challenge and throw open their doors to all of Inis Gallia and host the event? Who would set the standard by which all future festivals in the province would be measured?

Linsey stood atop the wall at her inn for a long time after the messengers passed. Her brown eyes scanning the ridgelines, and valley below. "From whence will the signal come?", she wondered. "Which community will rise to the challenge?"

OOC:
(Our First Server-Wide Event!)
Sunday, July 21, 2024 9:15pm EST and 6:15pm PST)

The Divine has chosen to bless everyone she cradles so dearly!
One party will take place in EACH Province! A Poll will be set up and pinned in each "province-general" to determine which Valley will host the first (July 21st).
(We will then rotate the Valley each month so everyone has a chance to host twice a year).

Minimum requirements for your town/valley to host include:

ONE 4 x 4 Stage area for dancing, plays, general merriment
(4x4 is minimum, larger is welcome)

Lighting to make the area visible.
4 Public Charity boxes.
An area for Traders, Merchants and Customers to set up and find each other.
A shrine/structure to honor The Divine for those who wish to honor her in their own way(s).
(can be large or small, let imagination be your guide)

Please Vote in your respective Provincial-general chats and we'll announce our first 4 Full Moon Party sites soon!

(If there are others in your Valley or Province unaware of the Party, let them know!!! And... you know... invite them to the discord! ?)

Message Captainbill47 for any inquiries.
